Stacking Arm Chair

Arm Chair with Casters

Trix

Trix™ is the most versatile multi-purpose seating line offered by AIS. Offered in stackable arm and armless versions with four legs, as well as an arm chair caster version, Trix can meet the needs of virtually any environment. Engineered with a high frequency molded back, the chair is extremely comfortable. The Trix caster version with arms is ideal for use in occasional meeting spaces, training rooms, and any other configurable space. Optional ganging brackets can be used to create row seating.
